Lennox Collection

The Lennox Collection combines contemporary European design with durable performance, offering versatile furniture solutions for both indoor and outdoor commercial environments. Manufactured in Europe, the collection includes lightweight yet sturdy chairs and tables crafted from UV-stabilised polypropylene reinforced with glass fibre for long-lasting strength and weather resistance.

Designed for practicality and everyday use, the Lennox Collection is easy to maintain, move, and reconfigure as needed. The weather-resistant construction ensures reliable performance across a variety of environments, while the sleek profiles create a professional and welcoming atmosphere for modern commercial interiors and outdoor spaces.
