Civic Modular Lounge Collection

The Civic Modular Lounge Collection offers flexible, comfortable seating for modern commercial spaces, including offices, lobbies, waiting areas, and breakout zones. Its modular design allows individual components to be combined, reconfigured, and tailored to suit different layouts, making it ideal for evolving workplace environments.

Built with durable materials and a clean contemporary profile, the Civic Lounge balances everyday comfort with long-term commercial performance. Its adaptable design supports both casual collaboration and relaxed waiting areas, helping create welcoming, functional spaces that feel considered and easy to use. The collection can be customised in a range of upholstery finishes and configurations to complement different interior styles and project requirements.
