Artia Desk Collection

The Artia Desk Collection delivers practical, powered workspace solutions designed for modern commercial offices. Featuring integrated power access and discreet cable management, the collection helps keep devices connected and work surfaces organised while maintaining a clean, contemporary appearance.

Including standard desks, corner desks, and B2B workstation configurations, the Artia range accommodates individual work, multitasking, dual-monitor setups, and collaborative environments. Spacious work surfaces, durable construction, and customisable finishes allow each configuration to suit a variety of office layouts and interior schemes. With fast delivery and professional installation available Australia-wide, the Artia Desk Collection provides a flexible and efficient solution for workplace fit-outs of all sizes.
